

Client:
University of Pennsylvania

Locust Walk

Design Professional:
Wells Appel

Location:
Philadelphia, PA

Delivery Method:
Estimating Services

Bancroft served as the prime estimator of this project for the University of Pennsylvania. The project included extensive renovations to the primary pedestrian spine at the heart of the University's main campus. Upgrades included the replacement of underground utilities and the paved surface. The project was conducted in two phases and encompassed five full city blocks.